Please read the Eligibility Statement carefully and submit all of the information that is requested.

The minimum eligibility requirements for adult eventers is the completion of a CCI* or better or, as an alternative, the completion of a CIC* within three years of the date of application. The minimum requirement for young riders is the completion of a horse trial at the preliminary level or better. Dressage riders must be competing at the Prix St. George level or above. Show Jumpers must be competing at the Grand Prix level or above. Drivers must be competing at the FEI level.

Please keep in mind that the American Horse Trials Foundation traditionally relies heavily on its participants and their supporters for its fundraising. By doing so, we have been able to maintain extremely low fundraising costs. It is the responsibility of each individual rider or event to raise funds for the Foundation.

Thank you for your interest. Please call with your questions before applying.
